Appoint a chamberlain who will reduce the tax inefficiency by .A chamberlain is a person who serves the king to convince him that he can do better. In the past, this might have been called a "vassal". He can deal with something that can benefit the king and convince him of it. He can serve the king to convince him that he could do better; or, in the case of a vassal, may convince his king that he can do better. Vassals can be useful in cases where they can convince the king that he can do better.
