Ridgely, North Carolina (CNN) -- A federal judge sentenced Dylann Roof, 21, to death Wednesday for killing nine black people in a racially motivated attack at a historic African-American church in Charleston, South Carolina, in June. "He has no remorse whatsoever," said the father of one of the victims, who was in court. "He has no sympathy at all for the African-American community." The attack at the historic Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church lasted several minutes and ended when Roof used a .45-caliber semi-automatic rifle to fatally shoot a pastor, a minister and six parishioners. It was the worst mass shooting in the United States in at least five years. The sentencing comes 09e8f5149f
