Highland Games and Highland Festival in Fort Worth, TX and talking about lessons learned throughout the week, events I missed, and pictures of the weather that my festival experience would not have been nearly as enjoyable without. So, here it is. This is the first in a series that I'll be sharing my experiences through my own writings and pictures. Post navigation 2 thoughts on "2010 Highland Festival Recap" Ugh, I did not get to see much of the actual events this year because i was over there when the show happened the last few years. This is the first year I didnt have to travel to watch the show which means i get to enjoy everything better! Thanks for taking part in this. As always, wonderful pictures! Your trip sounds so fun. I love the event at all, I've only done it twice and it was this year at Kenna's where I was a little older and slower and finished dead last. (I was in a rope competition where I only knew 3 moves in the system so left it to the judge to make any corrections.) It was so much fun and I'd like to go back and do it again next year. The guy who does the speeches at it was hilarious. He did a little one this year and didn't mention anything about the Olympics or sponsors. It was just the locals going on about their favorites and their experiences and what they love about it. Start Date: 4/23/01;
