namaskarangal. thank you very much for uploading the documents and mp3 files for our benefit. i could share this treasure with my friends and relatives by sending the link of the page and i heard from many of them living in uk, dubai, goa in india and other places that they could really get useful service of the document and audio by carrying out today's yajur upakarma seamlessly. I have been sharing for couple of years now through email and now through whatsapp. really helping for those people who are really in needs of such treasure when they have to complete very early in the morning to rush to work and may not be able to spend time to go to places where upakarma is conducted collectively. even some of the elders in our family too are helped by these documents and audio. hello!! thanks for the post. i can't help but chuckle at the comments of the 'merchants' in the first image that goes with the post. it goes to show how even the richest people in the world are not immune to acquiring blessings. did you know that vishnu used to live off of the alms given by the merchant who sold the material to him that he was given to eat? in return, vishnu had to do the service of that merchant. this was deemed as the holy material made from metal, crystal, gold, copper, red earth, black earth, white earth, wooden materials, etc. did you know that the purity of this material and its quality was judged as per the merchant? in the case of shiva, he too was offered food by the same merchants that had cooked food meant for vishnu. shiva had to serve the same patrons as vishnu. this was one of the reasons why even people worship both the deities at the same place. and this fact, is as it is, not just for our present day society, but throughout history, and most importantly for the people of india! worshipping as per the caste system is not something that is practiced by vishnu, but this is the lowest form of worship.it is said that vishnu was born a fish and a bird and was re-born as a king. even when he appeared in this form as a king, it was still not considered the highest form of worship. due to this, vishnu is seen as the lowest form of worship. but this is only the case for not knowing and not following all the 4 vedas. when the time comes for me to know the shastras, and i do, i shall properly worship vishnu as the supreme being. 5ec8ef588b
